

The Nation's Health, February/March 2018, Volume 48, No. 1

Nation

Biking, walking becoming more accessible in metro areas: New guides support local partnerships

Membership in APHA: A free perk for students at some schools: Expanding access

'Housing first' model making inroads on homelessness: Caring for people who are homeless

Why ending police violence is a public health issue: A Q&A with APHA's Georges Benjamin

New FDA campaign targets smokers at gas stations, convenience stores

Youth smoking at historic lows, but many vaping

Uninsurance rates drop in most states, but gains threatened

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Health rankings tap Massachusetts as country's healthiest state

States in Brief

Healthy You

Let's talk: How to find therapy that's right for you

- Can't meet in person? No problem

Health Findings

Health Findings

General

Q&A with Surgeon General Jerome Adams: Gaining better health through better partnerships: Report to highlight links between US health, economy

APHA annual congressional record: How members of Congress supported public health

- Eight 2017 public health votes from House of Representatives examined
- Congressional record: Six 2017 Senate public health votes examined

APHA News

1 Billion Steps Challenge sign-ups in full swing: Competition culminates during National Public Health Week

New book from APHA sheds light on harms of alcohol, shares solutions

APHA Advocates

President's Column

Finding a way to work together, move needle toward progress: Continuing to advocate for health

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Affiliates

Missouri Affiliate survey shows why health grads leave state: Salary, opportunities driving declines

Web-only News

Online-only: Simple exercise counteracts effects of inactivity on health [e1]

Online-only: Air pollution linked to delinquent behavior in teens [e2]

Online-only: Heat a threat to human health in rural areas [e3]

Newsmakers: February/March 2018 [e4]

Resources: February/March 2018 [e5]