

The Nation's Health, July 2019, Volume 49, No. 5

Nation

Vaccine exemptions scrutinized in wake of measles outbreaks: Non-medical exemptions re-examined

Momentum builds across US to replace lead water pipes: Water contamination an issue for millions

System that collects data on US violent deaths to cover all 50 states: Database expands

US foodborne illnesses rise, even as agencies address safety

Nation in brief

Special report

Americans stepping up to share their health data with All of Us: Research program marks first anniversary

Partners leading All of Us enrollment in communities: Groups use connections to build trust

Better health for all through inclusive science research: Q&A with All of Us' Richardson-Heron: Ambitious US study changing landscape of health science

Health providers play important role in All of Us enrollment

State & Local

California communities top yearly lists for smog, soot pollution

States in brief

Healthy You

Handy, helpful ways to keep your hands healthy

- Staying healthy with clean hands

Health Findings

Health Findings

APHA News

APHA 2019 to feature engaging speaker lineup in Philadelphia

APHA in brief

APHA Advocates

President's Column

Countering vaccine hesitancy with evidence-based decisions

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

General

Correction

Web-only News

Newsmakers: July 2019 [e15]

Resources: July 2019 [e16]

In Mississippi, strong vaccine laws keeping measles at bay [e17]

Media exposure to mass violence can lead to cycle of harm to mental health [e18]