

The Nation's Health, May 2021, Volume 51, No. 3

Nation

Women bearing hardships during pandemic: COVID-19 disrupts care, mental health, economic security

Pop-up clinics bringing vaccines to people who need them most: Meeting people where they are on COVID-19

Innovative resources help communicate, educate audiences on COVID-19 vaccines: Science-based information can be used with general public, essential workers, health professionals

- Free resources for vaccine education

Data from All of Us Research Program available to researchers

Q&A: 100 Million Healthier Lives provides framework through core principles: Six-year global project works to change ways people think about health, well-being, community

New round of smoking cessation campaign ads released by CDC

CDC: Exposure to violence common for teens, but can be prevented

Nation in Brief

State and Local

Oregon county finds link between transportation, racial inequities

States in Brief

Healthy You

Got body odor? Don't sweat it. Follow these tips

- Controlling your basic body odor

Health Findings

Health Findings

APHA News

Project to update APHA member experience shares findings

APHA Advocates

APHA In Brief

- Workgroup: Environmental health competencies need focus on equity

President's Column

APHA action alerts make advocacy easy: Advocacy – An important part of our work in public health

Vital Signs en Español: La importancia de la abogacía en salud pública

Affiliates

Affiliates helping bring COVID-19 vaccines to underserved groups

Affiliates in Brief

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Web-only News

Generic drugs offer big Medicare savings, but are not always dispensed [e6]