

The Nation's Health, May 2022, Volume 52, No. 3

Nation

Public health asks: How can we strengthen public trust? — Faltering trust endangers health, lives

Surge of legislation against LGBTQ youth threatens health: Measures censor lessons, discussions

Public health strategies, authority evolve during COVID-19 pandemic

Survey: High US health care costs harm minorities during pandemic <OA>

New resource aims to help professionals support youth at risk of suicide

Nation in Brief

- EPA: US power plant emissions lead to increase in air polluting toxins

State & Local

State health insurance exchanges open enrollment after disasters: Colorado, California part of new trend

States in Brief

Globe

Report: Climate-driven weather to take toll on global health

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

When's it best to get a test? The facts on genetic testing

Health Findings

Health Findings

APHA News

ECO Bookworms Club shares books with classrooms: Free books for teachers, librarians by request from APHA

New book explores climate change as public health issue

APHA Advocates

APHA in Brief

President's Column

Getting older should not mean necessarily getting sicker

Student Focus

Emory students use photography to express public health issues

Students In Brief

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Online-only

Newsmakers: May 2022 <OA> [E3]

Resources May 2022 <OA> [E4]