

The Nation's Health, August 2024, Volume 54, No. 6

Nation

Public health steadfast in commitment to equity, even in face of political attacks <OA>

Construction sector struggles with opioid overdose deaths <OA>

Certified behavioral health clinics expanding across US <OA>

US pedestrian deaths reach four-decade high, report says <OA>

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Phasing out tobacco sales by birth date taking hold in communities <OA>

Paid sick leave expected to be on ballot in Missouri, Nebraska this year <OA>

States in Brief

Globe

Q&A with NCEZID director: Controlling Ebola has improved, but risks remain for Africa and world <OA>

Health Findings

Health Findings

Healthy You <OA>

Don't let the 'ick' in ticks make you sick!

- Keep your pets tick-free

APHA News

APHA Advocates

- APHA calls on members to 'speak for health' in August with legislators

APHA's 2024 Policy Action Institute offers roadmap to better health policy

Minneapolis to host APHA's 2024 Annual Meeting <OA>

Election slate: Holt, Marshall nominated for APHA president

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

President's Column

Public health advocacy in action: Use your voice to speak for health

General

Summer Reads: Dip your toes into these inviting public health tomes

Online-only

Newsmakers: August 2024