The Nation’s Health, December 2008/January 2009, Volume 38, No. 10

Nation
Healthy People 2020 tackling social determinants of health: Input sought from health workforce
  - Companion documents broadening reach of Healthy People goals
Public health leaders hope for renewed health agenda under new administration: Health outlook
  - Focus on health system reform a welcome one for health leaders
Mental health advocates laud new federal parity law: Equal coverage for mental health care
New standards on airborne lead lauded by public health advocates
Physical activity guidelines give tips for kids, adults: New HHS recommendations pinpoint easy ways to fit in exercise
Concern over safety of bisphenol A leads to more study, calls for ban
EPA offers new electronic recycling guidelines; certification in works
Health advocates favor nomination of Daschle as secretary of health
Help raise flu awareness with CDC’s health e-cards

Nation in Brief

State & Local
Arizona launches online registry for emergency health volunteers
Public health priorities gain voter approval in state elections
States in Brief

Globe
World Health Report calls for heightened focus on primary care
Globe in Brief

Healthy You
Know your family’s health history for a better future
  - Begin the conversation

Health Findings
  - Mortgage foreclosures, neglected pools tied to West Nile virus spike

General
Checklist defines legal issues during flu pandemic
Entries sought for annual award for food protection
APHA News
Annual Meeting calls for reform of global, U.S. health systems: More than 12,600 workers join together
  • Trio of U.S. surgeons general a meeting favorite

Members choose Nevarez as next APHA president: Three Executive Board members, vice presidents also named

New APHA brief: Transportation bill opportunity to promote health

APHA institute tackles health issues in Caribbean: Maternal and Child Health Leadership Institute continues

National Public Health Week to highlight personal stories

Association has successful year, APHA Executive Board told

APHA Annual Report highlights Association’s 2008 accomplishments

Past presidents gather for coffee, talk

APHA Governing Council adopts 12 new Association policies: Changes to APHA Bylaws approved

Get involved now in Association leadership: Nominations being accepted for APHA committees, boards
  • APHA boards, committees open for leadership appointments

APHA review of existing policies begins next month
  • Timeline for 2009 APHA policy review, archiving

Summary of 2008 APHA policies adopted by the Governing Council in October: New policies address issues such as abortion access, health systems, community water fluoridation

Abstract submissions for 2009 APHA Annual Meeting open

APHA Expo booths compete for best in show prizes: Winners range from APHA Sections to local health departments

Theme of ‘Public Health Without Borders’ resonates with presenters

Public health exploring new frontiers in technology, biology

Sessions tackle growing problem of overweight among U.S. kids

APHA blog covers news from Annual Meeting as it happens

APHA calls for proposed 2009 policy statements: Full Association policy process now on APHA Web site
  • Timeline for APHA proposed policy process

Purchase photos from APHA’s Annual Meeting: Hundreds of photographs from sessions, socials online now

Nominations for APHA public health awards due April 17

Listen to Annual Meeting sessions online through APHA program
Meeting Findings
• Walking dogs can lead to more physical activity, researchers find

APHA Advocates

President's Column
Looking forward, looking back: Health in the new year

Journal Watch

Sections
APHA's member groups come together at San Diego meeting

APHA member groups present awards in San Diego: Educators, students, researchers honored for achievements

APHA Sections, SPIGs, Student Assembly call for nominations

Population Section changes name to reflect work in sexual health

Affiliates
Ohio Public Health Association named Affiliate of the year

Affiliate awards honor members’ contributions to public health

Affiliate activities spotlighted at Annual Meeting: State, regional Affiliates take on advocacy, capacity building

Job Openings

In Memoriam