The Nation’s Health, April 2009, Volume 39, No. 3

Nation

SCHIP renewal to bring care to millions more kids in need: Program reauthorized through 2013

Public health leaving its mark on state health reform: Reshaping health

Public health benefiting from new U.S. stimulus law: Health departments may see boost
  • Economic stimulus funding and public health: By the numbers

Council to boost veterans’ health, help families navigate system

Findings: Everyday food sweetener poses mercury contamination risk

Lack of health insurance hitting entire communities, IoM reports

New report highlights coverage gaps for patients fighting cancer

Obama asks EPA to revisit greenhouse gas decision

President’s 2010 budget outline highlights health reform

Sebelius nominated to head HHS

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Chicago program applies public health principles to street violence

Arkansas’ Seal the State to bring oral health to every schoolchild

Kentucky working on e-health effort, national research lab

States in Brief

Globe

Programs successfully address global violence against women

U.S. aid should address root causes of poor health, disparity

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

Helping family members as they age can be rewarding
  • Finding the silver lining

Health Findings
  • Multivitamins do not protect women against cancer, heart disease threats

On the Job
New APHA manual serves as alcohol screening tool for health professionals

HRSA center an online resource for health workers: Web site designed to help meet the demands of work force

General

Meteorologists making links between weather, public health: Today’s weather forecast calls for health

Radium dial play delivers public health history lesson to the masses

Correction

APHA News

APHA policy brief examines impact of recession on Americans’ health

Send us your National Public Health Week news, photos

APHA Advocates

President’s Column

Health impact assessment: Building public health into decision-making

Journal Watch

Sections

Award grant is latest gain for Gerontological Health Section

Health Administration Section looks to past for future progress

CHPPD Section’s new wikis promote collaboration, ideas for health reform