

The Nation's Health, February 2010, Volume 40, No. 1

Nation

Next generation of flu vaccines coming of age: Cell-based technology may replace egg-based flu vaccines

U.S. task force leads the way on prevention recommendations: Basing public health decisions on science

H1N1 work continues as U.S. cases peak; public urged to get vaccine

Group calls for FDA crackdown on misleading food labeling

Nation in Brief

U.S. global HIV/AIDS support to increase for hard-hit countries

Health reform: The path to progress is paved with successes, failures and opportunities

Success of Medicare, Medicaid provide lessons for health system reform at the federal level

Employer-based plans covering more than 60 million Americans

State & Local

States have long set the tone for comprehensive health reform across the nation

Globe

World responds to Haiti disaster

Healthy You

Men and health: Take time to take care of yourself

- Find the time to get in the game

Health Findings

Health Findings

- Researchers link drinking coffee, tea to lowered risk of diabetes

APHA News

APHA Advocates

APHA: U.S. Senate health reform legislation a historic move forward

The Nation's Health debuts its new online home: Award-winning public health newspaper launches new Web site

Meeting Findings

APHA annual congressional record: How members of Congress supported public health

- Nine 2009 votes from the House of Representatives examined
- Congressional record: Seven 2009 Senate votes examined

APHA leads the way on health reform for more than a century

President's Column

On the importance of family, community and good health

Journal Watch

Affiliates

Affiliates share lessons learned from capacity-building grants

Job openings

In Memoriam

Web-only News

Online only: Smoke-free laws still sparse worldwide as anti-tobacco fight continues

Online only: Nation's health preparedness has serious gaps

Online only: States failing to adequately fund tobacco prevention programs, further cuts made in 2009

Newsmakers: February 2010

Resources: February 2010