

The Nation's Health, October 2010, Volume 40, No. 8

Nation

Public health workers using new means to track, predict flu: Staying ahead of influenza outbreaks

- Seasonal flu outlook: H1N1 here to stay, but season will be quieter

States take on pertussis as disease cases resurge around the nation: Cases are cyclical

Ending human trafficking: Health workers help to identify victims: Global problem reaches inside U.S. borders

Q&A with keynoter Bill Jenkins: We must 'risk asking difficult questions and speak truthfully:' Noted epidemiologist helped end infamous Tuskegee study

Survey finds widespread gangs, drug problems in U.S. schools: Only 43 percent report drug-free schools

Foodborne disease outbreaks a continuing threat to U.S. health

National parks program puts emphasis on outdoor activity: Let's Move! campaign expands outside

Nation in Brief

State & Local

More U.S. states reporting higher prevalence of obesity: Obesity rate tops 30 percent in nine states

States in Brief

Globe

Cancer's global economic costs outpace other health conditions: About 83 million years of life lost in 2008

Globe in Brief

- Flooding in Pakistan linked to cholera, other risks to health

Healthy You

Antibiotics: Knowing when they're not needed

- Wielding the power of the pen

Health Findings

Health Findings

General

Correction

APHA News

New APHA book a resource for creating healthy, safe homes

APHA's 2010 award winners to be celebrated: Ceremonies to be held at APHA Annual Meeting in Denver

APHA campaign supports social justice work in Denver community

Koh, Benjamin, Frieden among headliners at APHA health reform summit

APHA meeting to host Grammy Award winner Aaron Neville

APHA Advocates

President's Column

Learning respect for community through centuries of tradition

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Sections

Winners announced for APHA's 2010 member group elections

Affiliates

Kansas health association works to improve breastfeeding in state

Wisconsin Affiliate puts learning on the lunch menu for nurses

Job openings

Web-only News

Online-only: At $500 per licensed driver, annual cost of motor vehicle crashes climbing, study finds [e36]

Online-only: Prescription drug use on the rise in the United States [e37]

Online-only: One in seven home kitchens doesn't make the grade [e38]

Newsmakers: October 2010 [e39]

Resources: October 2010 [e40]