The Nation’s Health, May/June 2012, Volume 42, No. 4

Nation

U.S. unprepared to respond to nuclear incidents, reports say: More training, surge capacity needed

More health departments nationwide embracing social media: Use of tools rises

• Examples of state, local health departments using social media

Youth tobacco use an epidemic, surgeon general report warns: New tobacco ads share hard-hitting stories

County health rankings a call to action on community health: Disparities between counties tracked

Q&A with former Medicare and Medicaid chief Donald Berwick: Be willing to embrace change: Devoting energy to improving public health in the U.S.

Raw milk linked to hundreds of hospitalizations for foodborne illness

New sexual education standards available for U.S. public schools: Kindergarteners to 12th-graders targeted

First accreditation of health department expected this year

Report: Public health has role in improving awareness of epilepsy

Nation in Brief

State & Local

D.C.’s Healthy Corners bringing fresh produce to food deserts: City program growing after first year

States in Brief

Globe

More people have access to safer drinking water, report finds

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

Tips for safely using over-the-counter medications

• Be extra careful with kids

Health Findings

Health Findings
General
Clarification

APHA News
APHA Annual Meeting highlights lifelong wellness: Registration for Oct. 27–31 San Francisco meeting opens June 1
APHA Midyear Meeting speakers to highlight public health opportunities
National Public Health Week celebrated around the nation
Health advocates: HRSA, CDC need full funding to fulfill their missions
Opportunity for public health in community benefit requirement
APHA book tells behind-the-scenes story of case against big tobacco
APHA innovation award winners seek to improve health policy
APHA member groups seek nominations for awards
Affordable Care Act goes before U.S. Supreme Court
APHA Advocates

President’s Column
Affordable Care Act anniversary is reason to celebrate, not end progress

Journal Watch
Journal Watch

Affiliates
Rhode Island association think tank serves public, state legislators
APHA Affiliates join Flu Near You Challenge to help track flu

Affiliates in Brief

Web-only News
Online-only: Budget cuts threaten Americans’ health: More than 52,000 jobs lost since 2008 [e17]
Online-only: Researchers identify new risks for sudden infant death syndrome [e18]
Online-only: Drunk-driving crashes a growing risk for young women, study finds [e19]
Newsmakers: May/June 2012 [e20]