

The Nation's Health, November/December 2013, Volume 43, No. 9

Nation

APHA's 141st Annual Meeting taking place in Boston in November: 13,000 expected

- Scavenger hunt, food tour among special Section-related events

Rate of uninsured Americans remains steady, census finds: 48 million people uninsured in 2012

Findings from Nurses' Health Study benefit women's health: Researchers recruiting for third round

More than 1 million rethink cigarette habit, thanks to CDC anti-smoking ads

White House recognizes public health Champions of Change

CDC says antibiotic-resistance poses threat, all must work to fight

Public Health Thank You Day to be observed Nov. 25

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Anti-smoking campaign in Vermont targets rural teens who love outdoors

States in Brief

Healthy You

All aboard! Staying safe and healthy on mass transit

- Pay attention during emergency situations

Health Findings

Health Findings

On the Job

Health departments have lost 44,000 jobs since 2008, NACCHO report finds

On the Job in Brief

General

Public health must include people with disabilities: MMWR report stresses need for health services for population

APHA News

Q&A with first lady Michelle Obama: How the Let's Move! campaign is changing the way kids eat, move: 'Everyone has a role to play in helping our kids lead healthier lives'

Look for full coverage of APHA's Annual Meeting in January issue

APHA Advocates

President's Column

Leading the movement for health equity, social justice, human rights

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Affiliates

DC Affiliate rallies for jobs to boost public health of ex-offenders

Affiliates, members, make most of APHA advocacy campaign

Affiliates Briefs

Web-only News

Online-only: Increase in young adults with oropharyngeal cancers linked to HPV, study says [e46]

Online-only: Number of disaster-related deaths drives donations, study says [e47]

Online-only: Bullying is the norm, accepted among siblings, study says [e48]

Online-only: Public health extras: News on aging, malaria, breast cancer risks [e49]

Newsmakers: November/December 2013 [e50]

Resources: November/December 2013 [e51]