The Nation’s Health, May/June 2015, Volume 45, No. 4

Nation

States taking action to regulate e-cigarettes: FDA working to gain authority as science on products grows

Public health joining with new partners to fight gun violence: More than 33,000 US deaths in 2014

US charting new path to combat growing antibiotic resistance: New action plan coordinates response

Dietary guidelines to promote healthier eating for Americans

CDC: Increasing seat belt use among truckers could prevent worker deaths

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Alabama HPV vaccine program works, say public health leaders

Premature death rates decline in new edition of county health rankings

States in Brief

Globe

CDC, PAHO partner in global effort to treat, prevent high blood pressure

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

Phobias: Learning how to face your fears

- Dealing with social phobias

Health Findings

Health Findings

On the Job

Study: Many physicians asked by parents to space out vaccinations

On the Job in Brief

General
Correction

APHA News
APHA Annual Meeting registration opens June 2: Nation’s premier public health event to be held in Chicago
APHA report shows how health agencies promote health equity
APHA Advocates
APHA in Brief

President’s Column
Businesses, communities and public health: Setting an agenda

Journal Watch
Journal Watch

Affiliates
Illinois Affiliate helps local health departments improve revenue, service
APHA Affiliates helping health departments gain accreditation
Affiliates in Brief

Letters
Letters

Web-only News
Online-only: Regular exercise at home key to reducing chronic disease risk in people with HIV [e19]
Online-only: Mexican-American seniors living longer but with more disabilities, study says [e20]
Online-only: Study: US workplace suicide rates rise, high among protective service employees [e21]
Newsmakers: May/June 2015 [e22]
Resources: May/June 2015 [e23]