The Nation’s Health, Nov/Dec 2019, Volume 49, No. 9

Nation

Antibiotic stewardship slow to catch on among veterinarians — Stakes high for human, animal health

Uninsurance rate jumps for first time since ACA; coverage falls in children — New census data

Q&A with public health advocate Sandro Galea: Be fearless following science, speaking for health — Keynote speaker at Annual Meeting opens up about public health

Marijuana unsafe for pregnant women, surgeon general advises — Clinicians urged to ask about use

Communities partner with scientists to reduce impact of climate change

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Acceptance of dental therapy growing as more states pass dental legislation

States in Brief

Globe

WHO: Better nutrition standards needed to improve global health

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

Preventing caregiver burnout: Take time to care for yourself

Health Findings
Health Findings

- Binge drinkers cause huge economic burden on society, new study shows

APHA News

APHA 2019 to rally around science, action, public health — Almost 13,000 expected in Philadelphia
- Can’t make it to Philadelphia? Watch the meeting via APHA Live

Evidence-based policies reduce gun violence — Forum showcases science, policies, solutions to end US epidemic

APHA Advocates

- Youth organize for action on climate

APHA in Brief

President’s Column

Parting notes from APHA’s president: Thanks, public health professionals

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Affiliates

Maine coalition adding partners for advocacy on climate legislation

Colorado association advocacy advances extreme risk gun legislation

Affiliates in Brief

General
Correction

Web-only News

Online-only: Public health workers can help increase flu vaccinations [e33]

Online-only: Lack of understanding on HPV hinders vaccinations [e34]

Online-only: Mammograms effective at finding breast cancer in men [e35]

Newsmakers: Nov/Dec 2019 [e36]

Resources: Nov/Dec 2019 [e37]