The Nation’s Health, April 2020, Volume 50, No. 2

Nation

US life expectancy still lags behind, despite small increase: Overall expectancy 78.7 years in 2018
   - Better maternal mortality data offer key insights on US disparities

Trump budget proposal a disinvestment in US health: Cuts to CDC, HRSA

Controlling COVID-19 will require flexibility, funding, says APHA’s Georges Benjamin: Congress must act to protect US health workers, general public

Research: ACA drove coverage progress, but gains are eroding

New surgeon general report shares most effective ways to quit tobacco

Nation In Brief
   - Study: US has highest suicide rate compared to 10 other rich nations

Special Report

Programs foster community resilience, health equity: Kresge, RWJF supporting climate work

Personal storytelling key to climate communication: Health workers effective messengers

ECO Bookworms club helps adults talk to kids about climate change

US tribes working to adapt in face of climate change threats: Livelihoods, economies at growing risk

BRACE helping health agencies prepare for climate change effects: CDC framework supports resilience

Climate change threatens mental health of vulnerable communities

Water quality, availability made worse by climate change in US: Access to water linked to health equity

Minority communities harmed worst and first: Q&A with climate justice expert Adrienne Hollis — Health inequities, social determinants exacerbated by climate change
Sharing knowledge at nexus of climate change, social justice: Special section explores pressing issues

Public health needs to play crucial role in energy justice

Globe

WHO process for declaring health emergencies scrutinized: COVID-19 response shows limitations

Healthy You

Eating less meat? Good for you! And good for the planet
- 6 strategies to cut back on meat

Health Findings

Health Findings

On the Job

On the Job Briefs
- NACCHO toolkit shows health agencies how to get most out of social media

General

Correction

APHA News

Policy can be used to make positive changes to community health, Police Action Institute shows: APHA event shares lessons from field, inspires action

Celebrate National Public Health Week April 6-12: Plan your NPHW events using fact sheets, toolkit, resources

APHA Advocates
President’s Column

Crossing sectors to improve public health: supporting Public Health 3.0

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Web-Only News

Online-only: Study: Jargon turns readers away from information [e6]

Online-only: Warnings can help readers spot false information online [e7]

Vaccination coverage increases in California after exemptions end [e8]

Newsmakers [e9]

Resources [e10]