

The Nation's Health, February/March 2022, Volume 52, No. 1

Nation

Health misinformation a 'threat to public health' — Leaders call out sources of disinformation, social media sites

— Personal approach can help people combat health misinformation

US omicron surge underscores benefits of COVID-19 vaccination

Data show gains, losses to American health during COVID-19 pandemic

Surgeon general: Action needed on youth mental health crisis

Nation in Brief

— New 'birthing-friendly' designation aims to boost US maternal care

State & Local

Local resilience programs take on COVID-19, disaster relief — Employing residents for public good

Partnership between DC schools, local health workers addresses absenteeism

States in Brief

Globe

WHO: Best practices, policies help lower trans fat consumption globally

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

Tips for a healthy gut: How to feed your amazing microbiome

- Feed fiber to your friendly flora

Health Findings

Health Findings

APHA News

APHA debuts ‘That’s Public Health’ web series — Science-based public health information shared on YouTube

Keep It Moving Challenge kicks off National Public Health Week

APHA in Brief

APHA Advocates

- APHA calls for national commission on lessons of COVID-19 pandemic
- APHA decries court ruling against worker vaccination requirements

APHA annual congressional record — How members of Congress supported public health 2022

- Nine 2021 public health votes from House of Representatives examined
- Congressional record: Four 2021 Senate public health votes examined

President’s Column

Looking out for our workforce includes caring for ourselves

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Web-only News

Newsmakers: February/March 2022 [E1]

Resources: February/March 2022 [E2]