

The Nation's Health, February/March 2026, Volume 56, No. 1

Nation

Public health instructors, students creating AI-ready workforce <OA>

Vaccine schedule changes will worsen inequities, experts warn <OA>

- APHA calls on courts to block revised immunization schedule

Transgender patients forgo health care as attacks on rights intensify <OA>

Medical debt harming health, futures of millions of Americans <OA>

Public health continues DEI work, despite federal intrusion <OA>

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Michigan Rx Kids cash program boosts maternal, child health <OA>

California's 'health in all policies' advances health in communities <OA>

States, cities adopt rent control to improve community health <OA>

States in Brief

On the Job

Words, tone matters in messaging on public health funding

Healthy You

Staying up on recalls can help protect you from harm <OA>

Health Findings

Health Findings

APHA News

2025 APHA annual congressional record

- Three 2025 public health votes from House of Representatives examined
- Five 2025 public health votes from the US Senate examined

APHA's Keep It Moving Challenges inspires activity <OA>

APHA in Brief

APHA Advocates

President's Column

Public health progress begins with your engagement in APHA

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Web-only News

Newsmakers: February/March 2026 [e1] <OA>