The Nation's Health, September 2026, Volume 56, No. 7

Nation

Push to 'make polluters pay' for climate change gains momentum in states <OA>

Tighter voting restrictions threaten public health across US <OA>

Public health communication strained by messaging gaps <OA>

Ranks of uninsured could swell in US with rise in health coverage costs <OA>

US pedestrian deaths rise as road infrastructure favors traffic speed <OA>

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Ohio county pays corner stores to limit advertising for unhealthy products <OA>

States in Brief

Globe

Global cases of cancer will soar by mid-century, leaders predict <OA>

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

Money-related stress: Sometimes unavoidable, but often manageable <OA>

- Six ways to help ease your money-related stress

Health Findings

Health Findings

On the Job

Roadmap shares guidance on partnerships, common ground <OA>

On the Job in Brief

APHA News

APHA Advocates

APHA Press book series helps public health workers build strategic skills, says de Beaumont's Brian Castrucci <OA>

World-class speakers set to engage, inspire on public health at APHA 2026 <OA>

President's Column

You're invited: Upcoming APHA institute builds women's leadership

Student Focus

Think tank connects Maryland students to community health

AJPH student group sheds light on journal publishing process

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Web-only News

Newsmakers: September 2026 [e7] <OA>